

Application for
Short-Term Study Abroad Program
in Northern Ireland 2004

Applications are due no later than December 5, 2003. However, since enrollment in the program is limited to 20 students, you are encouraged to submit your application as soon as possible, since admissions are made on a rolling basis. After 20 students have been accepted, additional applicants will be placed on a waiting list.

Once your application is complete, including an interview with Professors Flack and Daubman, you will be notified of acceptance or rejection, usually within one week. Deposits of $50 will be due by March 1, 2004. If you are applying only for this Short-Term Study Abroad Program in Northern Ireland, there is no need to complete a separate application for preliminary approval to study off campus.

Please complete the following information and return to either:

Bill Flack, Department of Psychology
 Kim Daubman, Department of Psychology

II. Codes of Conduct

1. Bucknell University is concerned about the disciplinary record of students applying to participate in the Northern Ireland program. This record may have an impact on the approval of a student's application.

Have you ever been sanctioned by the University for a violation of the Student Code of Conduct, on or off campus? _____yes_____no

If yes, please explain:

2. I understand that Bucknell's social and disciplinary policy is based upon the premise that its students remain Bucknell students, and are guests abroad, that they are expected to abide by the regulations of Bucknell University and by the laws and customs of Northern Ireland, that they are legally subject to the same laws that govern Northern Ireland's citizens and regulations that govern local students, that the Northern Ireland Program is an academic community, that students are expected to respect the rights of other students, the staff, and the faculty, and that students who violate the codes of Bucknell or the Northern Ireland government will be subject to immediate dismissal.
