

BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY'S 3RD ANNUAL RIVER SYMPOSIUM

SUSQUEHANNA RIVER AND AGRICULTURE

FROM THE FIELDS, TO THE STREAMS, TO THE BAY

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 2008

1:30 - 9:30 pm

1:30-3:30 pm (Trout Auditorium)

Lectures on Native American and agricultural practices in the Susquehanna Valley and lessons for today.

4:30-6:30 pm (Outdoor Tent)

Display booths and picnic meal featuring locally-grown food and refreshments. Music by KJ Wagner.

5:30-6:30 pm (Outdoor Tent)

Introductory comments by U.S Congressman Chris Carney and keynote address by PA Secretary of Agriculture Dennis Wolff.

7:00-8:00 pm (Trout Auditorium)

Preview segments of the new PBS documentary on Pennsylvania agriculture.

8:00-9:30 pm (Langone Center)

Student research posters
Regional wine and grape industry.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 2008

8:15 - 5:30 pm

8:30 am-12:00 pm (Trout Auditorium)

The scientific dimension.

12:00-1:00 pm (Terrace Room)

Lunch and keynote address by Paul Swartz, director of the Susquehanna River Basin Commission (SRBC).

1:00-4:00 pm (Trout Auditorium)

The agricultural dimension.

4:00-5:00 pm (Trout Auditorium)

Reflections by noted author Gary Holthaus.

Cost: $10 includes meal on Friday evening and Saturday lunch

Registration is from 12:30 until 4:00 pm on Friday at the tent